
Contents

About the Editors	vii
Contributors	ix
Preface	xvii
Part I Introduction and Theoretical Position
Chapter 1 Looking for Meaning in Interactions Jaap Boonstra and Léon de Caluwé	3
Chapter 2 Methodology of the Evidential: Research and Sense-Giving in Processes of Organisational Development Adriaan Bekman	29
Part II Telling Stories and Investigating Realities
Chapter 3 Applying the Narrative Approach in Organisational Change François Breuer	49
Chapter 4 Working with Stories: Narrative and Dialogue as Methods for Learning, Understanding and Practice Improvement Tineke Abma	65
Part III Investigating History and Making History
Chapter 5 Learning Histories in Learning and Change Projects: Making History with a Passion Gerhard Smid in discussion with Godfried den Boer, Vittorio Busato, Liesbeth Halbertsma and Tonnie van der Zouwen	81
Chapter 6 Making History Together: The Learning History Method in Theory and Practice Leen van Driel	95
Part IV Appreciative Inquiry and Realising Innovations
Chapter 7 Future Search: Inspiring, Discovering, Learning, Seeing, Imagining and Doing Combined Gemma van der Ploeg and Annemieke Stoppelenburg	119

Chapter 8	A Large Group Intervention in a Chemical Company Luk Dewulf and Luc Verheijen	137
Chapter 9	Learning and Changing in an Open Space: The Dynamics of and in an Open Space Event Carla Vliex	155
Part V Looking for Patterns and Possibilities for Innovation
Chapter 10	Working Interactively with Causal Loop Diagrams: Intervention Choices and Paradoxes in Practical Applications Hans Vermaak	175
Chapter 11	Intervening in Processes of Sense-Making: A Method for Breaking Through the Closeness of Organisational Processes Hans de Sonnaville	195
Chapter 12	Interactive Interventions in Social Interactions Dick van Ginkel and Mariëtte Thijssen	207
Part VI Learning to Reflect and Change
Chapter 13	Organising In-Depth Learning: Change as Reflective Sense-Making Brechtje Kessener and Katrien Termeer	229
Chapter 14	A Methodology for Increasing Collective Competence: A Context for Co-Creative Change André Wierdsma	243
Chapter 15	Shaping a Learning Process and Realising Change: Reflection, Interaction and Cooperation Through Survey Feedback Kilian Bennebroek Gravenhorst	261
Part VII Reflecting on Acting and the Pursuit of Beauty
Chapter 16	Free Conduct as an Intervention Method: ‘Void Leadership Lacks Direction’ Julien Haffmans	279
Chapter 17	Aesthetics in Organisations’ Work Processes: A Perspective for Intervention Mathieu Weggeman and Irene Lammers	295
Part VIII Critical Reflection and a Look Ahead
Chapter 18	Intervention Through Interaction: A Comparative Review Jac Geurts, Jurriaan Altena and Bart Geluk	313
Index		337